

Living ISLAM

A way of Life

The Islamic Creed / Faith

AQIDAH

Believe

Believe in Allah

Believe in His Angels

Believe in His Books

Believe in His Messengers

Believe in the Day of Judgment

Believe in Fate and Preordainment

The Islamic Law / System

SHARIAH

Do

Rites and Acts of Worship

Ethics, Values and Morals

Dealings and Transactions between people

Mandatory Rites of Worship
The Five Pillars of Islam

- Utter Shahada
- Pray five prayers a day
- Fast Ramadan once a year
- Pay Zakat annually
- Do Hajj once in a lifetime

Recommended Acts of Worship

- Voluntary acts of worship (prayers, supplications, charity, etc)

The Islamic Law

The sincere faith in Allah must be reflected in one's behavior, and interactions with people and surrounding environment. A Muslim is the one who submitted to Allah and accepted His Commandments in His Divine Book "The Glorious Quran" and explained by His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ.

Shariah

The Islamic Creed

Strong belief in one God (Allah) Who created all people and all beings. In addition, it includes the belief in what He commanded us to believe in. (The sound belief in Allah is called Eaman in Arabic).

Aqidah

